

Pembroke Public Library Meeting Room Policy

The meeting room is available for cultural, charitable, civic and educational activities of local community groups and organizations when not being used by the library and related organizations. Non-profit organizations are considered and for-profit groups or individuals are considered for a fee. The Pembroke Library Trustees reserve the right to review, accept or reject applications. The use of the meeting room does not imply library endorsement of the group or its activities.

Room use priority is as follows:

- Library
- Library associated groups
- Town of Pembroke committees
- Pembroke community non-profit groups
- Local non-profits
- Private groups and individuals (fees paid)

SCHEDULING and FEES Activities must end at the specified time.

Application forms should be submitted at least one month before the date needed, if a group has not previously been approved.

Groups must renew their applications yearly by September 1st.

The meeting room has 100 chairs and 10 tables available. You are responsible for setting up and returning them to the storage room. If your group requires a large number of tables and/or chairs, you must make arrangements for their set up in advance.

If the library is closed due to inclement weather, the meeting room will not be available. Local radio stations will be notified.

You will be notified if the trustees or the director determine that the meeting requires the services of the Pembroke Police Department. It is the responsibility of the group to contact the Police Department.

Public non-profit organizations and community clubs are not charged fees if they use the facility during the hours available, and the meetings are open to the public. Non-profit groups should only charge for dues and/or refreshments.

Private individuals, businesses, condominium associations and for-profit organizations will be assessed a fee based on the number of hours used. A 50% deposit must be submitted with the application and the total fee must be paid in full 24 hours before the meeting date. The library reserves the right to keep the deposit if cancellation is not made 24 hours prior to the meeting.
