Summer Reading 2017: Build a Better World

Summer Reading 2017 has begun!

*Want to participate?
It's easy!*

You read (or listen to audiobooks).

You write (your name and an optional review).

You enter (for prizes).

You can do it all online or visit us at the library!

When is this?

Monday, June 26th - Friday, August 11th. Sign up anytime before the final week online or at the library.

Who can do this?

Anyone of any age with a valid library card! We have programs for children, teens, and adults.

- Early Literacy Club for babies and toddlers (ages 0-4).
- Read and Bead Club for children and young tweens (Pre-K-6th grade). Minimum of age 3 for this program.
- Books and Buttons Club for teens.
- Pages and Prizes Club for adults.

What can I read?

Anything! This includes eBooks, audiobooks, graphic novels, and comic books.

How do I participate?

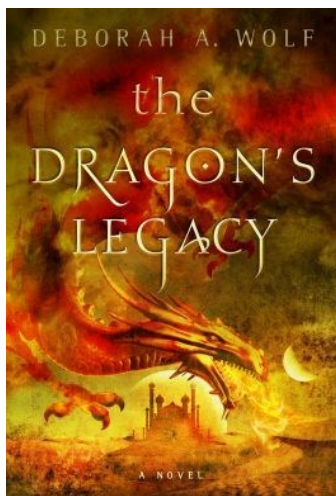

Just sign up online (you can find links for each program on our website) or visit us at the library!

And be sure to celebrate with us at our second annual Summer Reading Fest on Thursday, August 10th from 4 - 8 p.m.! Featuring fun and games, face painting, local food trucks, ice cream treats provided by the Friends, and more!

For more information on events for all ages, see pages 4-8 of this newsletter or visit our website. For more information on rules, prizes, and more, pick up a Summer Reading brochure on your next visit or check out our website.

Patron Picks

Have some time to kill before "Game of Thrones" returns on July 16th? Try Deborah A. Wolf's The Dragon's Legacy! One patron loved this book, and thought fellow "Game of Thrones" fans would too. The Dragon's Legacy shares complex world building and a large cast of characters with "Game of Thrones," but also features more active female protagonists. The Dragon's Legacy is an epic fantasy set in a dying desert world, with dragons, demons, talking lions, and dream-based magic. The first in a trilogy, keep an eye out for the following titles: The Forbidden City and The Seared Lands.

Staff Picks

Wondering what the staff here
at the library is reading?
These are some of our favorites!

The unique and varied suggestions for riveting reads this month come from our own learned Julia, whose description of her selections and their appeal is presented verbatim here.

Smoke Gets in Your Eyes: And Other Lessons from the Crematory* by Caitlin Doughty -- Maybe slightly morbid, this is a tell-all about the mortuary industry and personal memoir about dealing with death. I found Doughty's writing style funny and engaging, and the topic very thought-provoking.

S.P.Q.R.: A History of Ancient Rome* by Mary Beard -- A fun look at the history of Ancient Rome. Mary Beard discusses myths, literature, artwork, history, and archaeology but her enthusiasm for the subject is contagious so it does not read like a boring history textbook.

The Secret History* by Donna Tartt -- Set at a small liberal arts college in New England, this book follows a group of students on a suspenseful murder mystery, but instead of asking who did it (you learn from the first pages who), the book asks why. The pace is slow and the main characters are unlikable, but the relationship between the characters is so intriguing and the prose is beautiful.

Atlas Obscura: An Explorer's Guide to the World's Hidden Wonders* by Joshua Foer, Ella Morton, and Dylan Thurau -- An atlas of the weird and obscure places around the world. Entries are short and funny, so it's a great book to pick up if you've got just a few minutes to read.

The Historian* by Elizabeth Kostova -- A suspenseful mix between Anne Rice and The Da Vinci Code, this book follows three main narrators back and forth across time and the world to find the true history of Dracula. It's a long book, but moves quickly between narrators, flashbacks, and letters and left me nervous, but excited for every page.

Thank you, Julia, for raising our awareness of these captivating and informative texts! Drop in to browse the Staff Picks display in the library's main reading room for more recommendations.

Did You Know?

Pembroke Public Library offers T-Mobile hotspots that are available for Pembroke residents to borrow for up to seven days! These portable internet devices are a great solution for work trips, vacations, or when your Wi-Fi at home isn't working. You can connect up to 10 devices at one time.

Our hotspots can be reserved through our website under "Find Books, Movies, & More." They are reserved through TixKeeper, the same way you would reserve a museum pass. Please note that hotspots are not able to be renewed.

Landscaping 101

Monday, July 10th at 6:30 p.m.

Do you have the feeling that you should have a plan for your property, rather than just mowing it or buying whatever is in bloom? Now is the time to get started! In this free presentation by Massachusetts Master Gardener Gretel Anspach enjoy some pretty pictures and practical advice, whether you have a patio or an estate. This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Pembroke Public Library.

Kevin V. Symmons Author Talk and 2017 Write Off Competition

Tuesday, July 11th at 6:30 p.m.

Local author Kevin V. Symmons will meet and greet guests and share his experience transitioning from plumbing executive to best-selling author on Amazon. This event is part of Kevin's 2017 Write Off Competition, and aspiring authors age 16 and up are encouraged to attend and provide Kevin with a one-to-three-page sample of their work. A few submissions collected over his six-month tour will be submitted by Kevin to Wild Rose Press. The grand prize will be a one-on-one meeting with top publishing executives at Wild Rose Press and a few publishing tips.

Essential Oils 101

Thursday, July 13th at 6:30 p.m.

More and more people are using essential oils for everyday things, from pampering themselves to cleaning and helping with various ailments. Whether you're applying the oils topically, enjoying the aromatic benefits through diffusing, or taking them internally, the positive effects of essential oils are boundless. In this free program, join doTERRA Wellness Advocate Milinda McGraw to learn the basics of essential oils. You will get to experience the oils with hands-on activities and bring home an item. Please register at the library or by calling us at 781-293-6771.

The Role of the Honeybee in Our Environment

Monday, July 24th at 6:30 p.m.

Join veteran beekeeper Ken Warchol as he shares his knowledge with a narrated visual presentation. You will travel right inside a beehive to better understand the mysterious social insect and the role that it plays in humanity's survival on Earth. Learn about the challenges honeybees face in our environment and find out how we can help this insect that is essential to our own survival. Ken brings samples of a variety of honey for everyone to taste. This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Pembroke Public Library.

Build Your Own Website: An Introduction to Weebly and Other Free Services

Wednesday, July 26th at 6:30 p.m.

Library Director Deborah Wall will discuss the importance of a website, demonstrate the popular free web-hosting service Weebly, and go over some other possibilities for free (or mostly free) choices. This is not a hands-on class, so all you need to bring is yourself!

Sprinklers, smoothies, swimming, and Summer Reading! Our theme this year is "Build a Better World" so be sure to visit us to build and strengthen your mind and imagination all summer long with our many books, events, and clubs! Check out our programming schedule below and be sure to sign up yourself!

Please note that these events are FREE thanks in part to funding from community donors and the Friends of the Pembroke Public Library.

Youth News

Pembroke Public Library Foundation

Did you know that the Pembroke Public Library has a foundation? It was set up specifically to fund those library needs not covered by public funding that will help make our library an extraordinary home for reading, learning, and life enrichment. An Artist (or Author)-in-Residence program, an expanded space for Children's programming, and an endowment fund for future library needs are all things that the Pembroke Public Library Foundation may be able to achieve with your support.

We are looking for new members! To learn more about the foundation, get involved, or make a donation, contact Pembroke Public Library Foundation President Marie Peeler at mpeeler@peelerassociates.com or Library Director Deborah Wall at dwall@sailsinc.org.

One way to help the foundation that won't cost you anything extra, but will add up for us, is to make your Amazon purchases through the Amazon Smile website. The website looks the same and has all the same great books and more, but using Smile means Amazon will donate .5% of your purchase to the charitable organization of your choice. Just go to smile.amazon.com and be sure to select Pembroke Public Library Foundation Inc. as the organization you support! And don't worry; you'll find your wish lists, Prime account, shopping cart, browsing history, and more on Amazon Smile. It's exactly the same, only with a smile - and a bonus for your library.

Upcoming Exhibits in the meeting room

July

Richard Hinds Photography and Artwork

Richard has been involved in digital photography since 2011 and created his Digital Musings website in 2012 to show off his photo work and digital art based on his photography. He is proud to display several types of images this month, including traditional photography, high dynamic-range (HDR) photography, digital watercolors, and another unique black-and-white style. His images have been captured as far away as Hawaii and California, as well as locally around New England. Originally from Bridgewater, Richard now lives in Abington.

August

Pembroke Arts Festival Show

Dedicated to the Founders of the Pembroke Arts Festival

The Pembroke Arts Festival will arrange August's show featuring a retrospective of work by Brooks Kelly, one of the founders of the festival. There will be, in addition to these original paintings by Kelly, other items of interest related to this wonderful Pembroke tradition.

In the display cabinet, Anne Kelly will be showing a display of memorabilia going back to the original 1968 festival.

Out-of-town visitors, please call to confirm meeting room availability for viewing these wonderful exhibits. If you would like to request art exhibit space, contact Library Director Deborah Wall at 781-293-6771 or dwall@sailsinc.org.

Snapshot of May/June at PPL

Local author Robine Andrau gave a talk on her fascinating nonfiction book Bowing to the Emperor: We Were Captives in WWII and a show-and-tell of her family's WWII-era memorabilia.

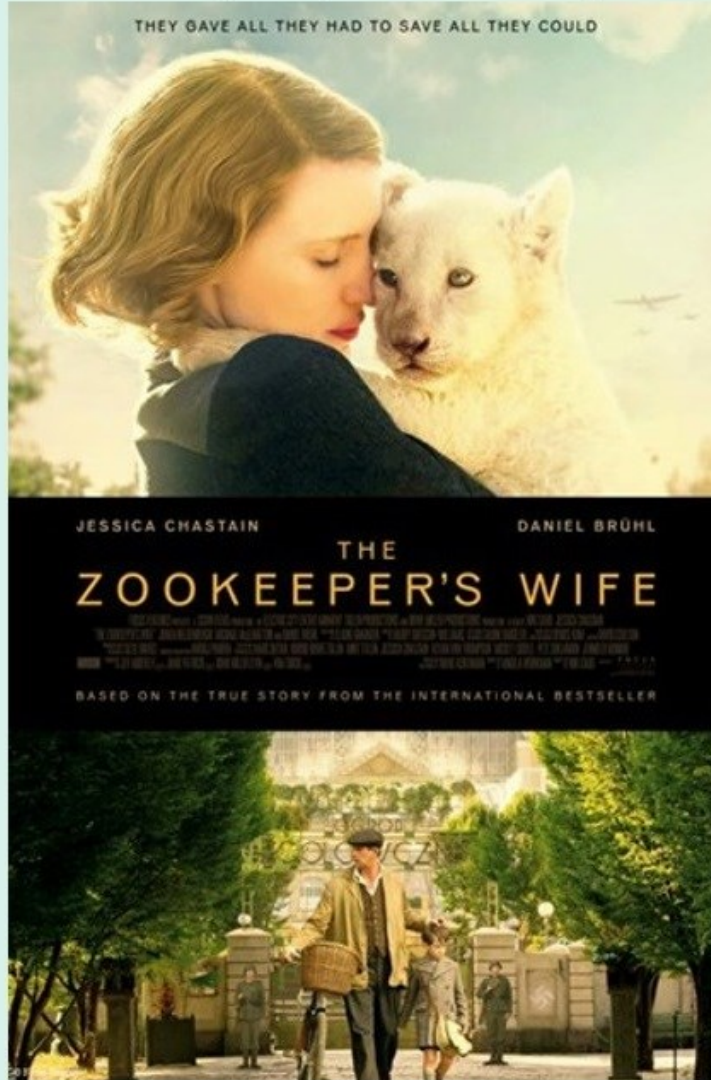

This pretty puzzle was completed at the library by our patrons. If you like doing puzzles, we always have one in progress in our back reading area so be sure to take a look next time you visit!

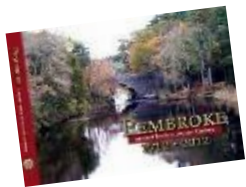

As part of the Kick-Off event for our Summer Reading program, our younger patrons got the fun and unique opportunity to build with the Balloon Fairy! They learned about science, technology, engineering, art, and math (STEAM), all while helping to create an awesome balloon sculpture. Check out the dragon they made on display at the library for the next couple weeks!

- Gain support for library improvement.

You can reserve a museum pass from home and pick it up at the library. The Friends purchase yearly museum/ cultural passes to the following venues: Boston Children’s Museum, Franklin Park Zoo, Heritage Museum and Gardens, Institute of Contemporary Art Boston, Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, Massachusetts Parks Pass, Museum of Fine Arts, Museum of Science, New England Aquarium, Plimoth Plantation, Roger Williams Park Zoo, South Shore Natural Science Center, and Stone Zoo.

The yearly passes are mainly funded by the Friends and a grant from the Cultural Council. Each year we provide approximately $3,500 in funding toward the purchase of the passes. The discounted museum passes are available to a wide variety of area museums and parks and are used by many.

The Friends would like to thank the following business sponsors for their support and generosity:

- Burke Distributing Corporation
- Fork in the Road Catering
- Good Deeds, Janet LaBerge
- Laura DaSilva, CPA
- Pembroke Country Club
- Rockland Athletic Supplies
- Tiny & Sons Autoglass

The Friends welcome new members as well as new volunteers. Please let us know if you would like to help out at any of our upcoming fundraisers. We welcome many types of volunteers, including bakers for our baked good sales, helpers at the book sale, and creative volunteers for the basket raffle set-up. Volunteer time commitment is always flexible.

Help us stock our ongoing book sale and spring book sale! Book, DVD, and CD donations are being accepted now and throughout the year. We ask that your donations be in good-to-excellent condition. Unfortunately, we cannot accept textbooks, magazines, or VHS.
