Help Us Choose the Town-Wide Read!

Though the ground may now be blanketed with snow, springtime will surely come. And at the Pembroke Public Library, springtime is heralded by the annual Town-Wide Read. This will be the fifth consecutive year in which the whole town is invited to read the same book, engage in discussion, and attend enrichment events designed to complement and enhance the reading experience.

In prior years the people of Pembroke thrilled to the classic adventure story of Treasure Island, set sail on the Mayflower, and lost our hearts to the brave little dog named Atticus. Now it's time to choose the next book for our community read, and we would love to hear your suggestions. The ideal selection will have broad age appeal and elicit substantial interest on an intellectual, emotional, or societal level. Perhaps you have read, or been intending to read, a captivating book that you think others would enjoy as well. Cast your vote by calling 781-293-6771 or emailing us at feedback@pembrokepubliclibrary.org, and the town's next shared reading adventure could be your choice!

On Tues. March 11th, Greg Page of Merrimack Analysis Group (www.MerrimackAnalysisGroup.com) will be conducting an online safety seminar from 7-8 PM.

Read more about this program on page 2 of this newsletter in "Lindsay's Corner".

Introducing Lindsay's Corner

The previous edition of this newsletter introduced Lindsay, our new Reference librarian. This edition introduces her recurring column "Lindsay's Corner".

So you got an eReader for Christmas, but have no idea how to use it? Call or come in to make an appointment for a one on one tutorial on how to load eBooks onto your Kindle or Nook. Be sure to bring your device, any necessary cords and library card.

On Tues. March 11th, Greg Page of Merrimack Analysis Group www.MerrimackAnalysisGroup.com will be conducting an online safety seminar from 7-8 PM. This seminar covers everything from the danger of children chatting with strangers to seniors being victimized by scammers who use information from web profiles, and the truth about passwords and password reset questions. Parents concerned about their children's safety online as well as anyone who has any sort of web presence, profiles, e -mail, shopping, etc. is encouraged to attend this important session about online safety.

January 18, 2014 from 7-8, come join the Teen Tech Squad to learn about the most useful apps for your new smartphone or tablet. Jack and Geoffrey from BC high will be on hand to answer questions you might have regarding useful apps for your new phone or tablet!

The Pembroke Public Library has recently subscribed to 6 new databases that are accessible from home or the library. Have your library card handy to log into these databases:

- Career Transitions: Tips on creating resumes/cover letters and preparing for interviews, as well as discovering career interests.

- Chilton Library: A searchable database for the DIY auto-repair enthusiast.

- Legal Forms: Officially-approved, professionally-written documents on topics ranging from real-estate to divorce and wills.

- Powerspeak Languages: Teach yourself a new language. Choose from Spanish, French, German, Mandarin, or ESL for Spanish Speakers.

- Priceit!: The ultimate research and pricing tool for dealers, collectors and appraisers. Includes 41 million actual prices paid for antiques.

- Testing and Reference Center: Find specialized tests for college, graduate school, the military or trade school.

Children's Room News

The weather outside may be frightful this winter, but there is plenty to do inside the warm and cozy library! Ages 2+ are invited to storytimes on Mondays and Tuesdays at 10:30AM.

Both sessions are the same and feature books, music, fingerplays and a craft! Get ready to shake your maracas!

On Wednesdays we offer baby lapsit for ages 6 months to 24 months at 10:30AM. There will be short stories, lots of songs, and of course musical instruments!

On February 12th from 3-4PM we'll offer a drop-in Valentine's Day card decorating program for all ages. Stop on by and use your imagination to create cards for your friends and family. All materials will be provided!

Mamasteph will visit us on January 23rd and on March 20th at 10:30AM for stories and songs!

All ages are invited. If your child hasn't come to a performance before, ask anyone on the South Shore about Mamasteph and they will tell you amazing things!

On Friday, March 7th at 10:30AM

Big Ryan will be back for his rousing program, Tall Tales! Expect stories, songs, and lots of laughs!

This program is best for ages 3-8, and as this is an in-service day at local schools, it will be a great way for school-aged kids to spend their morning!

Paying with Plastic, Fine-ally!

Our primary goal here at the Pembroke Public Library is to enhance the lives of our patrons. In that spirit, we are always looking for ways to improve the library experience. One obstacle in the past to quick and easy service was our inability to accept charge cards to pay fines. So we are happy to announce that many of the libraries in the SAILS network, including the Pembroke Public Library, are now able to accept credit or debit cards online. Library staff cannot accept charge cards, but patrons may use the library's computers, our wireless connection for laptops, or smartphones to pay fees online from within the library. And fines may be paid online from home or away, twenty-four hours a day.

Using a charge card to pay online is fast, easy, and secure. First, go to the library's website, pembrokepubliclibrary.org. Halfway down the page on the left side, click on the graphic displaying three credit cards, above the words "Pay Fines online!" This opens an information page introducing the user to the SmartPay system. You will need your account number and PIN (in most cases the last four digits of your telephone number), along with a Visa, MasterCard, or Discover credit or debit card, to proceed.

To pay fines, click on the "Pay Now!" hyperlink at the top of the page. At this point you leave the library website and enter the SmartPay site. Following the instructions at the top of the page, fill in the account login form with your library card number and PIN, and click on the "Log In" button. This brings you to the SmartPay home screen for your account. To pay fines, click on the second tab at the top of the page, "Pay Fines/Fees." Enter the name, number, expiration date, and security code of the credit or debit card. Minimum payment is one dollar, and a twenty-five cent transaction fee (once per payment, not for each individual fine) will be added to the total. Click "Finish" to complete the transaction. If you would like to view a list of prior payments, go to the "Transactions" tab at the top of the page. Don't forget to click on the "Log Out" tab to exit your session!

If you are interested in donating to the library, you may follow the same procedure but click on either the blue "Make a Donation!" link at the top of the information page, the green "Make a Donation" button at the top of the Account Login page, or the "Donations" tab within SmartPay. Making donations or paying fines online is a simple and convenient process when you follow the five easy steps outlined here.

Did You Know.....

that you can reserve passes for the Museum of Fine Arts from the library?

The MFA is one of the great encyclopedic art museums in the world, with collections comprising more than 450,000 objects representing all periods and cultures.

The pass admits: 2 people; includes admission to the Gund Gallery for $10 per person Free for children age 7-17 weekdays after 3 pm, weekends, and BP school holidays. Otherwise $10 per person. Free for children under age 6.

The cost for this pass is $475, which is proudly sponsored by the Friends of the Pembroke Public Library.

Teen News - Calling all students in 7th-12th grade...

Join the Teen Advisory Group (TAG)!

We're always looking for new members, and you even earn volunteer hours! What is TAG, you may ask? TAG is a group of students that plan library events, help add materials to the collection, enter various contests, and have FUN! Such activities have included running life-sized games of Candyland and Clue, entering photo/video contests, Wii tournaments, and more. Meetings run Thursdays once a month from 5-6PM. Check the online calendar or in the Teen Room for specific dates each month.

TAG came up with a brilliant idea this fall, to create videos based on the plots of the required reading books at the High School. The catch was, the videos would be, at most, six seconds long and filmed with the Vine app. Could the teens do it? Could they film such videos in only six seconds? You tell us! Search for pembrokelibrary on YouTube and check out the first five videos in the series! TAG will be filming more over the coming months, so keep an eye on our YouTube channel.

Speaking of videos, it's that time of when teens will start brainstorming ideas for a video they can enter in the Teen Video Contest for the 2014 Summer Reading Program, sponsored by the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners. This year's summer reading theme is, "Spark a Reaction." The video must be 30-90 seconds long, encourage teens to read and use the library, and incorporate the theme. If you are a teen ages 13-18, or know a teen who would like to participate, have them speak to Sarah, our Youth Services Librarian.

Join us at the next TAG meeting!

Check the online calendar at www.pembrokepubliclibrary.org
or in the Children's Room for dates.

Staff Picks

Wondering what the staff here at the library is reading? These are some of our favorites!

Recent staff recommendations offered in this space have included a diverse assortment of fiction, mystery, science fiction, and non-fiction. In an effort to bring even more variety to the table, our knowledgeable new youth services librarian Sarah has contributed suggestions appropriate for the younger crowd, or for anyone interested in a fast-paced story without lascivious content. Sarah has generously submitted enthusiastic reviews of one picture book and two young adult stories, both of which are the first in a series.

One of her favorite picture books at the moment is The Day the Crayons Quit by Drew Daywalt and illustrated by Oliver Jeffers. Summed up in Sarah's words, "Duncan loves coloring, but his crayons are fed up. They decide to quit and write angry letters to Duncan explaining why. Peach Crayon is unhappy his wrapper was torn off and now he's naked, and Gray Crayon is upset that he has to take on the big jobs, like coloring in elephants. This book is hysterical, and Jeffers never disappoints with his colorful and crazy illustrations."

The older crowd may enjoy I Hunt Killers by Barry Lyga. "As the son of one of the most famous serial killers of all time, Jazz can't help but worry he may follow in his father's footsteps. Although Jazz's dad is in prison, murders are happening in their sleepy town again, and before anyone can accuse Jazz he plans to find the killer. This book is a thrilling fast-paced murder mystery. The second book in the series, Game, is even darker and will have you on the edge of your seat."

Another gripping young adult read is Croak by Gina Damico. In this story, "Lex is your average rebellious teenager, or so she thinks. Her parents, fed up with her shenanigans, send her off to the town of Croak to live with her Uncle Mort for the summer. She thinks she's going to be a farm hand, but ends up being much more. Her Uncle is actually a Grim Reaper and she is about to learn the trade. Lex has more powers within her than anyone ever imagined. The question is, will she use them for good or for bad? This is the first book in a trilogy. The final book was recently released and I must say, I loved each book as much as the last. There is non-stop adventure, hilarious characters, and plot twists that just keep coming." If you enjoy Croak, be sure to check out Scorch and Rogue.

These recommendations will certainly help to shake the winter doldrums and add a little excitement to a reading rut. Many thanks to Sarah for her intriguing reviews! Remember to browse the Staff Picks display in the library's main reading room for more great ideas.

A few of My Favorite DVDs..... by Heather S.

It's that time of year again, when the dramatic drop in temperature causes us to abandon our outdoor activities and seek refuge by curling up with a cozy blanket or in front of a warm fire. What better way to spend a lazy winter afternoon indoors than with a good movie? Did you know that between our Adult and Children's DVD and VHS tape collections, the Pembroke Public Library has over 4,000 video titles to choose from? If you've never taken a look at our collection, we have a lot of great new releases, independent films and series sets, as well as the classics, and we're getting new titles in all the time. Looking for a recommendation? Here are a few of my favorites.....

Taking Chance (Not Rated) – There are very few movies that I would bother spending my money to purchase (that's one of the services that I use the library for), but "Taking Chance" is one that I did. Released in 2009 by HBO Films, "Taking Chance" is a deeply moving military drama based on the true story of Lance Corporal Chance Phelps, a young Marine whose life was cut tragically short by the war in Iraq. Kevin Bacon plays the role of Lt. Colonel Michael Strobl, a veteran officer who has stepped up and volunteered to escort PFC Phelps's body back to his family in Wyoming for burial. The story that follows is an honest and highly emotional portrayal of Strobl's journey across the country as he fulfills his mission to deliver PFC Phelps home. Along the way, Lt. Colonel Strobl witnesses firsthand the honor and respect shown by the many ordinary citizens touched by the loss of PFC Phelps, most who had never even met this heroic soldier. This film is a truly heart-wrenching reminder not only of the sacrifices that are made by our country's service members as they fight to protect our freedom, but also of the patriotism living deep in the hearts of so many Americans. It is a tribute to the traditions and rituals rooted in the culture of our nation's military which were created to honor those service men and women who will never make it home. If I could only recommend one film that I feel has the power to make you think about what it really means to be an American, "Taking Chance" would be that film.

Parental Guidance (PG) – If you are someone who has ever questioned the parenting practices of your own parents or those of your grown children, "Parental Guidance" (20th Century Fox, 2012) is sure to strike a chord while providing a lot of laughter (and possibly a few tears) along the way. Billy Crystal and Bette Midler star as the grandparents of Harper, Turner and Barker, three children who have been raised under the contemporary parenting philosophies of their parents, played by Marissa Tomei and Tom Everett Scott. When an unexpected business trip puts these 'old school' grandparents in charge for the week, the result is a hilarious clash between the two worlds. While the humor is more slapstick and predictable than sophisticated, there is also a lot of honesty and truth to the dynamics created among the three generations of characters. Whether you're a grandparent, an adult child who is now raising your own children, or the grandchild currently caught up in the "battle" of whose parenting methods are best, you're bound to find at least one character to identify with. In the end, whichever 'side' you're on, you'll be left with the lesson that family isn't always a matter of "right or wrong." Sometimes a connection and understanding between generations is best made through the combination of two seemingly opposing extremes. While it may not be a contender for 'Best Picture of the Year', "Parental Guidance" is a wonderfully funny family-friendly movie that is definitely worth seeing.

The Guardian (PG-13) – I will openly admit that I am not one of Aston Kutcher's biggest fans. With that said, I was surprised at just how much I enjoyed his portrayal of young Coast Guard rescue swimmer recruit Jake Fischer in "The Guardian" (Buena Vista/Touchstone, 2006). As part of his training and evaluation, Fisher has been placed under the mentorship of veteran swimmer Ben Randall (played by Kevin Costner), a man still reeling from the aftermath of an accident that killed his crew and the subsequent failure of his marriage. For those of you familiar with "Top Gun", the storyline of "The Guardian" isn't too far off. Kutcher's character is the epitome of youthful cockiness, a recent high school champion swimmer with hints of a troubled past. Having been 'forced' into the position of recruit trainer by the US Coast Guard, Randall is less than impressed with Fischer and his ego, and is determined to teach him a life lesson (or two) along the way. What Ben doesn't realize is that through his dealings with Fischer he will learn something about himself. While the movie certainly has a fair amount of action with its dramatic sea rescue scenes, it's the story of the inner struggles and turmoil of these two main characters that drew me into the film and held my attention. I don't typically bother with any of the "extras" that many movie companies include with the main film (such as actor interviews, deleted scenes, etc.), but for this one I did view the alternate ending that was filmed during production. Personally, I'm glad that they chose to go with the ending they used, though I would suggest that you take a look for yourself to see if you agree. While not the most original of storylines (again, if you've seen "Top Gun" or "An Officer and a Gentleman," there will definitely be a feeling of familiarity with this film), "The Guardian" is still a good picture, which will appeal to those looking for an action film as well as to those who want a little more depth in movie plots.

Upcoming Exhibits in the meeting room

January 2014

Come and view Joe Kennedy's photos of the stunning vistas and impressive land formations found in the state parks of Utah. Included are shots taken in Coral Pink Sand Dunes, Kodachrome, Goblin Valley and Deadhorse. These were the alternative places Joe ended up visiting when the government shut down his intended destinations of ten national parks. The sunny views will warm your soul during this icy month of January.

For February and March... unfortunately, no one has signed up to display their art and photos...can you help us out??? Contact Linda McCollum or Debbie Wall at the Library at 781-293-6771.

Out of town visitors, please call to confirm the meeting room availability for viewing these wonderful exhibits. If you would like to request art exhibit space, contact the Library Director, Deborah Wall, at (781) 293-6771.

Membership Drive 2014

The Friends of the Pembroke Library (a.k.a. Friends) want to thank our members for their continued support. One part of our yearly fundraising is our annual membership appeal. This year, our goal is again to raise awareness of how the Friends support the Pembroke Public Library and to increase membership of individuals, families, and corporate sponsors.

Part of the Pembroke Public Library's mission statement is to "empower people to find and evaluate information and remain current with the new technology." Our 2011 grant of $10,000 enabled the library to purchase laptop computers, tablets, and e-readers for a Technology Lab. In 2013, the Friends donated the AWE workstation for the Children's room of the library. The Friends hope to continue to support this important part of the library's mission with continued enhancements to the library's technology.

Did you know that the Friends, along with a grant from the Pembroke Cultural Council, provide $4000 per year to provide discounted museum and cultural passes available through the library? Even as the cost of these passes have increased every year, the Friends have been able to continue to provide funding.

Increased membership and fundraising support will allow us to continue to provide these much used passes, and also allow to us purchase additional ones often requested by patrons.

Please help us to continue this important support by renewing or becoming a member of the Friends of the Pembroke Library during our 2014 membership drive.

Please note that in the interest of saving postage and paper, the Friends will not mail out renewal notices this year. If you are already a member, please use the form found in this newsletter to renew your membership. We will also send out renewal notices to members who are on our email list.

New membership forms can also be found on the library's website, www.pembrokepubliclibrary.org, or at the library. An individual membership is only $10, and a family membership is $20. For $50, a business can provide a year-long sponsorship. The Friends are an authorized 501c3 organization, so your membership dues are also tax deductible.

Book, DVD, videotape, and CD donations are being accepted now and throughout the year. We ask that your donations be in good to excellent condition. Unfortunately, we cannot accept textbooks or magazines.

The Friends welcome new members as well as new volunteers. Please let us know if you would like to help out at any of our upcoming fundraisers. Board meetings are held on the first Tuesday of even months. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Death by Chocolate 2014

Save the date -
March 22nd!
Help solve the murder mystery at the library.

Back by popular demand- the Death by Chocolate Murder Mystery Play returns to the library on March 22, 2014. Hosted by the Friends of the Pembroke Library, the play features Pembroke celebrity actors. Use your detective skills to pick up on the clues from the actors and use clues found within the library to solve the who-done-it.

At intermission, check out the fantastic chocolate dessert table. The desserts are donated by local businesses and Friends. A cash bar will be available for beer and wine.

We are looking for help with some of our committees and planning for Death by Chocolate 2014. Please contact Pam DeMoucell at 781-293-2083 if you are interested in helping with this great fundraiser.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY BOOK GROUP

The Friends of the Pembroke Library January 2014 book selection is Olive Kitteridge by Elizabeth Strout. One of our book group members is involved in the production of the upcoming mini-series based on this book.

on January 7th at 7 PM in the Pembroke Public Library’s Trustees Room, and also some perspective in turning a book into a movie.

About Olive Kitteridge:

In a voice more powerful and compassionate than ever before, New York Times bestselling author Elizabeth Strout binds together thirteen rich, luminous narratives into a book with the heft of a novel through the presence of one larger-than-life, unforgettable character: Olive Kitteridge.

At the edge of the continent, Crosby, Maine, may seem like nowhere, but seen through this brilliant writer’s eyes, it’s in essence the whole world, and the lives that are lived there are filled with all of the grand human drama—desire, despair, jealousy, hope, and love.

At times stern, at other times patient, at times perceptive, at other times in sad denial, Olive Kitteridge, a retired schoolteacher, deplores the changes in her little town and in the world at large, but she doesn’t always recognize the changes in those around her: a lounge musician haunted by a past romance; a former student who has lost the will to live; Olive’s own adult child, who feels tyrannized by her irrational sensitivities; and Henry, who finds his loyalty to his marriage both a blessing and a curse.

As the townspeople grapple with their problems, mild and dire, Olive is brought to a deeper understanding of herself and her life—sometimes painfully, but always with ruthless honesty. Olive Kitteridge offers profound insights into the human condition—its conflicts, its tragedies and joys, and the endurance it requires.

For more information about the upcoming dates and book discussion choices, go to www.pembrokepubliclibrary.org.

The Friends would like to thank the following business sponsors for their support and generosity:

- Laura daSilva, CPA
- Marie Peeler, Peeler Associates
- Net Global
- John the Tax Guy
- True Life Chiropractic

The Friends of the Pembroke Library

- Create public awareness of the role of the library in the community
- Provide financial support beyond the library’s budget limits
- Encourage gifts and endowments to the library
- Gain support for library improvement

The Friends of the Pembroke Library is a registered 501c3 organization, so your donations are tax deductible.
