

Web Link Policy

Administrative Policy/General Disclaimer

The Pembroke Public Library (PPL) provides hyperlinks to other organizations through web sites and digital services. The inclusion of any link does not imply endorsement by Pembroke Public Library or any association between the library and the operators of the external site. The sole and limited purpose of the PPL's web site and hyperlinks is to serve the cultural, educational, and informational needs of the people of the Town of Pembroke and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. To this end, the decision to publish corporate or commercial logos or direct links to vendor sites will be made within the context of the library's mission and/or strategic objectives. PPL reserves the right to refuse any link or sever existing links at any time.

Externally-linked sites are not under the control of the PPL and the library is not responsible for the content of any linked site, or any link contained in a linked site, or any changes or updates to such sites. Once a visitor leaves the PPL web site and browses to an external site, the Pembroke Public Library Internet and privacy policies no longer apply and visitors will be subject to the new site's policies.

Links From PPL to External Sites

It is the PPL's practice to limit external links to the following kinds of web sites and content:

- Freely accessible information deemed by staff review to supplement PPL holdings, services, programs, exhibitions, and/or events.
- Federal, state, and local governmental units that provide additional services and information that users of the PPL web services may find of interest.
- Nonprofit organizations that users of the PPL web services may find of interest.
- Educational institutions including K-12 school districts, community colleges, and universities.
- Commercial sites of sponsors or other contributors of resources to library events or programs.
- Commercial sites of news media organizations providing coverage of a topic of interest to PPL customers.
- Commercial sites of vendors with whom the PPL has contracted to provide information or services to its customers.

Link Requests

Requests for links from the PPL site will not be granted automatically. Links to external content on web pages hosted by PPL will be added at the library's sole discretion. Requests may be emailed directly to feedback@pembrokepubliclibrary.org or may be submitted through our Contact Us page.
